PRESS RELEASE Pancake Breakfast Makes Triumphant Return to Antioch Fire Department

The Antioch Fire Department would like to invite all residents to the RETURN of the Antioch Fire Department Pancake Breakfast on Sunday, Sept. 25, from 7 a.m. until 12 p.m. at Antioch Fire Station #1, 835 Holbek Dr. Antioch.

This will be the 25th anniversary of the Pancake Breakfast at the Antioch Fire Department. In addition, it's the first time in three years the fire department has been able to offer up this beloved event due to the COVID pandemic.

"We are so thrilled to be able to bring back our Pancake Breakfast for residents to enjoy again," said Antioch Fire Chief Jon Cokefair. "When we asked residents to vote in favor of our referendum earlier this year, we heard from many people they wanted us to bring back some of our favorite events, like the Pancake Breakfast. So it's great that we can finally do this again."

There will be an opportunity for children to touch a fire truck, take tours of the firehouse, and play in a bouncy house shaped like a fire truck. In addition, there will be plenty of pancakes, sausage, and refreshments for people to enjoy.

The cost of the event is $8 for adults, $6 for senior citizens and children 6 to 12 years old. Children 5 years and younger are free.
